Brief Details.

On 21st Feb 2020 at about 9.00am, I parked my car bearing registration number: SKX5775H at National University Hospital, Medical Centre Block, Level 6 Carpark (multi-storey), lot no 654. After securing the car, I, together with my wife, left for our son's medical appointment at the hospital. On the same day, at about 5.30pm, we returned to our vehicle only to discover that there is damage on the front right portion of the car. There are scratches as well as a big dent discovered at the right portion of the car. There was no note left at my car. However I have an in car CCTV that managed to capture a yellow Citicab taxi, which registration number is slightly unclear, reversing in and out several times before moving off. I suspect that this is the car that had hit onto my car. From the video, I can make out the following letters of the number plate, SHD8577. I have approached the security officer who has a video footage of what has happened at the multi-storey carpark. This is the first time such incident has happened.
