Circumstances of Accident

On 22/07/2020, I was driving SG6069B, Service 969. At around 1545 hours, I was heading straight from Yishun Central towards Yishun Avenue 2. Traffic light was showing green. I drove my bus straight. I noticed two private cars moving slow into the slip road on the left. I tapped on my horn to alert the cars and as my bus was passing by the slip road. I kept within the bus lane. I heard no sound or whatsoever. When my bus had passed the slip road, I checked my left view mirror and saw the car had already exited out. As I made a stop at the next bus stop, I alighted to check. Then I saw scratched marks on the left rear portion of my bus (at the engine cover, after the left rear tyre). I saw third party vehicle had also stopped in front of the bus stop. I realized his car (SFB689G) had grazed against my bus when he exited out from the slip road. I approached third party driver and asked why he never give way to my bus as my bus had the right of way. He replied he had just discharged from hospital and was not feeling well and the car behind him had horned, pressurizing him to exit out from the slip road. There were only paint marks on the right front portion of the car. Initially, third party driver wanted to settle privately with me, but I called BOCC and Police and the Field Team was activated on scene. No injury reported. That is all.
