Dear Joanne,

We refer to the above matter.

TP's accident video shows that Insured had reversed and hit TP's stationary parked vehicle. However, the traffic police outcome shows that TP parked at a no parking zone.

As such, we are of the opinion that liability is 100% against Insured and the police outcome against TP does not apply on liability for this claim because third party vehicle was stationary at that time. We have informed our Insured and he is agreeable to let Insurance handle and settle the matter.

Appreciate your approval/comments (if any) on liability please.

Thank you.
