Dear Gary,

ACCIDENT ON 26/04/2015 INVOLVING VEHICLES SKH 5417B AND SHD 1307T

We refer to above matter.

Our insured has reiterated that the accident was caused due to the entire negligence of your client.

According to our insured, he reversed the car out and was about to get out to lock the gate, your client vehicle grazed the back of his car bumper with the rear left side of his taxi.

Basing on the damage profile, if our insured vehicle reversed and hit your client vehicle from the left rear. If so the impact should have caused a bad dent on your client vehicle left rear portion but the damaged photos showed otherwise.

Attached herewith our insured's report for your perusal.

After reviewing circumstance of accident, we are denying liability and unable to look into your client's claim, unless you have concrete evidence to prove otherwise.

Dear Thin Thin,

Looking at both vehicles damaged, it is more likely that your insured had reversed and hit onto our vehicle rear left portion. It is impossible for our client rear left portion to hit onto your insured vehicle rear bumper.

Kindly re-consider your offer and let us hear from you soonest.
