Our Ref: SKQ 4570A

Dear Jia Le,

We refer to the above matter and your e-mail dated 25th September 2020 attached with below photo<01>.

<01>

Firstly, we deny your False Accusation that you allege our customer also changing lane. Based on the photo/video footage clearly show our customer moving straight ahead within his own lane (abit on left side, but still WITHIN the lane). And please take note the distance between your Insured and our customer is less than one car length.<01>

Please refer to the below photo <02>

<02>

Based on the photo<02>, clearly show your Insured still moving straight within his lane when our customer passing by on your Insured LEFT side. The distance between your Insured and our customer is less than HALF car length(JUST BESIDE). AND our customer moving straight ahead WITHIN his own lane. AT THIS POINT OF TIME BOTH PARTY MOVING STRAIGHT ON HIS OWN LANE.

Please refer to the below photo <03>, is show the moment of point of Impact.

Based on the photo<03>, is clearly show our customer moving straight ahead within his own lane and suddenly our customer vehicle rear right portion being collided by your Insured.

Both Party Version

Your Insured alleged our customer collided with your Insured while both party changing lane.

Our customer reported he was travelling straight along the said road, suddenly a car encroached into his lane from right side and collided into his car rear right portion.

Fact

Please accept the fact that we can found out in the video footage that clearly show:-

- Initially both party travelling straight on their own lane.
- Your Insured fail to keep a proper lookout start changing lane when our customer passing by.
- Your Insured collided into our customer rear right portion
- Accident was caused because your insured's negligence

Furthermore even IF our customer changing lane, our customer already complete change lane and travelling straight within his own lane as per photo/video footage. The Main concern is Your Insured fail to keep a proper lookout and change lane without give way to approaching vehicle and causing the accident.

Thus, the accident was caused by your insured's negligence and Your allegations that our customer also changing lane are TOTALLY not strike on the main point.

Please provide evidence or your Professional explanation to Overthrow our point failing which please confirm Liability as per BOLA 15.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Your prompt reply will be very much appreciated.
