Circumstances of Accident

WSVC20001541 Accident_Description I went to view 25A Cotswold CI for purchase. My car was parked along Cotswold CI on the opposite right side of their gate. The lady seller (Shirley) was in a hurry to fetch his son she drove out of the house and turn right. The front left of her car hit the right side rear of my car near the rear wheel. All of us heard a loud sound while standing inside her gate waiting for her to leave the house before we could leave. Even her house helper was there waiting to close the gate after us. We couldn't see my car because her car (Jaguar SUV white, believe to be F-pace) was blocking the view. She didn't stopped to check the damage. She reversed partially back into her gate (I thought she was going to come down to check the damage) but turn the other way (turn left) and sped away from the scene. We were all shocked. Her house agent (Daniel) was the first followed my my husband (Koh Chye Hock) to go check on the damage. we found scratches on the location right side rear of my vehicle and some white powdery marking on the rear right wheel as well as 1 white powdery spot on the rear side skirt of my vehicle. Daniel called shirley's husband who was in the house and later went into the house. But the husband (Tim) didn't come down to see the damage. Through Daniel we were asked where do we want to send our car for repair and I answer my dealer's service center (Wearnes) and I was told that the husband said he will settle direct with my workshop.
