Hi Vic,

We refer to the above matter.

Please be informed that our driver Mr Tan had come down our office yesterday to view both parties video. The summary of our discussion is as follows: -

We advised our driver that we did not have a good case to defend as third party video clearly shows that third party was driving straight within his lane, our driver who was turning our from the minor road should give way to third party.

Our driver insisted that based on his taxi video, there was no oncoming car from the left while he turned out, suddenly third party appeared and collision happened. Our driver also mentioned that he had almost entered fully in the left lane, third party should be able to see his taxi but did not stop and resulted the accident. Furthermore, our driver highlighted that there was a road work along the road, both drivers' view may have been blocked by the barrier. Our driver is of the view that it is a 50/50 case. We have explained to him that it is difficult to negotiate at 50/50 as third party video footage clearly shows that his taxi turned out from the minor road, before crossing into third party lane, he should be able to see third party taxi and yet he did not stop to give way.

In the end, we have advised driver that we would try to negotiate and resolve the matter at best with third party. Our driver still felt that he is not 100% at fault, however he will let insurer to handle the matter.

Kindly let us have your mandate on liability after review the case.

Thanks.

Hi Vic,

We refer to your below email.

Kindly let us have a copy of insured video footage for our necessary action.

For an update, we have spoken to our driver Mr Tan. During our tele-conversation, we have advised him that third party had submitted a copy of video footage to show that third party was driving straight, while our driver was turning out from minor road. However our driver insisted that his taxi had come out from the minor road for few seconds and third party should have seen him but still moving ahead and caused the accident. He disagreed that he is 100% liable.

We have invited our driver, Mr Tan to come down to LKK office to view third party video for further explanation and he will let us know his schedule.

We will update you again after discussion with our driver. Thanks.
