Brief Details.

On 07/12/2020, at 07:30am. I was driving along Old Toh Tuck Road, with my wife Melanie (S8012981E. HP: 91380385) in my car (SJJ7934M) next to me in the passenger seat, I intended to make a right turn into 32 Old Toh Tuck Road. As I was approaching, I signaled right and slowed down to wait for on-coming traffic to clear before making the right turn. When I came to a stop we were suddenly hit from the rear, the impact of the collision caused my vehicle to move forward and produced a loud noise.

We immediately alighted our car to assess and take photos of the damages, and exchange details with the driver of the van which hit us. The van (GBK2864D) is a company vehicle for A-Power and delivery PTE TLD, and was driven by Karuppasamy Karthikairaja (G2731950K), he gave me his contact number as the following:87399629.

Our car suffered a dents to our boot (left side, above the plate number), a dented rear bumper (left side), hair-line crack to rear boot light (left side). The collision to our rear has also resulted in our boot not being

After exchanging our details, I proceeded on to my office to inform my supervisor that I need to take urgent leave to settle this incident. Around that time I started to feel pain in the back of my neck and my wife Melanie started to feel pain in her back, headaches and started to have some difficulty breathing. We went to consult our GP (Fajar Family Clinic and Surgery) where we were given 3 days of MC each. After which we went to settle our insurance whom informed us to make a police report.

No ambulance was activated, no traffic police was at scene and there were no damages to government property. I have in-car camera which captured the whole incident, footage of which I have already saved.
