Brief Details.

On 03/12/20 at about 1830hrs I was riding along depot road towards Anderson. I was in the left lane and the car was in the right lane in front of me. We were travelling in the same direction. As we approached a road divider near to depot close, I saw that the vehicle was encroaching into the left lane without signaling. As such I thought that the car was changing lane to the left lane. I then changed to the right lane. Actually the car was trying to make a wide turn from left to right while making an illegal U-turn. The car turned quite suddenly and I could not stop in time. The front of my motorcycle hit into the right side of the car. I do not know the damages to my motorcycle. The damages to the car were right side mirror broke off and dents and scratches at the front driver side door area. The car had one female passenger.

I was conveyed to NUH and got 5 days MC. My injuries are abrasions at both hands fingers, both legs toes, my left knee swollen, lower back pain, chest pain. My total medical fee was $277.
