Brief Details.

I have the video recording.

My wife and baby were in the car at the carpark when I dropped down to quickly buy some stuff nearby.

When I returned, my wife told me that my parked car was hit and the driver came down to check his own car before running away. My wife told me there was a loud scratch. As it's raining, and baby in the car, my wife only managed to bang on our car door. But the driver acted blur and went off.

I called up my insurer Ntuc income and an orange force arrived. He helped call the police as it's a hit and run. The police arrived and started questioning and summon the driver to come over.

He insisted that he does not know about his car hit and scratch mine while he is reverse parking. Video footage showed that he reverse forward 8 times and after the accident, he still went over to look at his own car. However, he told the police that he is ignorant of the accident and we exchanged contacts in front of the police and took down each others' nric numbers.

I will go to the motor shop tomorrow to get assessment and repair.
