Brief details. I was in the building at one of my supplier's office in a meeting with my car parked downstairs at the carpark. After my meeting ended, i came down to find my car windscreen smashed and boxes of plastic containers. Someone on the eighth floor had accidentally dropped two carton boxes of plastic containers from the 8th floor and both boxes had struck the windscreen of my car. And the person who had accidentally dropped the carton boxes off the 8th floor came down to apologize and he and his company will take full responsibility for what has happened.

Adrian Teng

to me, Siti

Dear Boon,

If policy liability is engaged, your Insurer will recover both monies from our Principal. It will depend on your Insurer if they want our Principal to reimburse them in full with the policy excess for their forwarding thereafter or separate into two cheques.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further enquiries or clarification.

Thanks & Regards,

Adrian Teng

Dear Mr Adrian,

Thank you for your email.

In regards to this accident, my insurance company is asking me to pay $ 1100 excess in order to claim my own damages due to this incident.

Please advise me on how do I claim back this monies paid as I am a innocent party here.

Await your reply.
