asked him what has happen. He said due to rain vision unclear but my replied to him was what he's doing the rain didn't caused any visibility problem. I took photos of his nric and driving license and called the number he gave me. He said to claim his insurance.

Due to persistent rain, after 15 mins, we moved the car to block 605 Yishun St 61 where the lorry owner said he own a vegetable store there.

Took Photos of damaged car but not the full place of accident happened. After a while I felt strain at my neck and back on my right n headache came after.

Told driver I'm going to see doctor on this strain, he agreed. He took my driver's license too.
