Brief Details.

On 9/01/2021, at around 2200hrs, I was stationary at a red traffic light along Jalan Bukit Merah when I was hit from behind by a lorry. The driver of the lorry then motioned for me to go into the nearest HDB Block Carpark in order to discuss and I agreed. I followed them to the carpark after taking a few more photographs. When we entered the carpark, his vehicle was nowhere to be seen. After a while, he drove back and we parked in the Blk 132 Jalan Bukit Merah Carpark, and the driver of the lorry claimed that he had tried to brake when approaching my vehicle but as the road was wet he had skidded and collided with my vehicle. His lorry was only slightly dented but my car was seriously damaged, with the rear-view glass window completely shattered. The driver of the lorry gave me his particulars and offered to bring me to the workshop he frequents. However, I told him that we would get direction from our insurance company before proceeding with anything and he acknowledged. I am making this report for record purposes.
