POLICE REPORT (NP299)

CONTINUATION OF REPORT

Report No. E/20210116/7047

a white car pulled up, and four men exited. They introduced themselves as people from a car workshop who had happened to be passing by. They passed around their business cards and offered their services in insurance claims, repairs and providing replacement vehicles. They also made comments to discourage the drivers from reporting the accident to the insurance companies, and from seeking repairs at authorised car repair workshops, e.g., "Oh, yours is Kocomo, they don't do personal accident"; and "if you try and claim through NTUC Income, you may need to pay your own damage first." Details from the business card:

When an LTA Enforcement officer and EMAS Recovery showed up at the scene ~10 min after the accident, the LTA officer requested that the car workshop group drive off. They left one of their colleagues behind. The man who was left behind subsequently left the accident scene in SLA2178K, driven by SEAT CHERN CHEN.

I found it highly suspicious that a group of people from the car workshop happened to pass by the accident scene at such short notice -- even before LTA and EMAS.
