Without Prejudice

Dear Evelyn,

Please be informed that our principal had further reviewed the matter and based on the available information at hand, the liability is in favor of our insured. Your client reported that he/she is coming out from the side road.

Kindly refer to our insured's statement as attached for your reference.

As such, we have our principal's instruction and that we are unable to look into your client's claim.

Thank you.

No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement."
