Brief details.

At 9:30am, at tampines mart open carpark, I was sitting in my stationary parked car when I felt an impact of being hit from the left side of the car. I saw a man who looked to be in his late fifties with grey hair step out of a black car (License plate: SKS2697) that had stopped in front of my car, stepped out of his vehicle and looked at my car condition. I waved at him from the inside of my car. He just looked at the condition of my car and drove off. I managed to get a glimpse of his license plate and I also noticed that he has damages on the right side of his car as he had hit the left side of my car. I was unable to step out of the car to stop him when the incident happened as I was locked in the car while my mom went to grab
