Brief Details.

On 1st February 2021 at about 1540hrs, I was driving my van bearing registration plate number GBH3969U along Bishan Street 11. The weather was clear and the road was dry. The traffic was moderate.

I was driving at the left lane of the said road. Subsequently, I passed one uncontrolled T junction with no traffic light. While I was passing the said junction, there was another car bearing registration plate number EU1222A suddenly came out from the side road without checking for traffic.

Due to that, the front portion of my vehicle collided onto the right side of his vehicle. Both of us have no passengers. I wanted to get his particulars but he did not give me. He has no injuries on him. Due to the accident, my vehicle has the following damages:

- 1) Front bumper dislodged
- 2) front plate number dislodged
- 3) front left headlight cracked
- 4) Air con tank damaged
- 5) left side passenger door jammed
- 6) front portion of vehicle frame damaged (dented)

After taking a few photos of the accident scene, my vehicle was towed away. I felt pain on my neck and went to Mount Alvernia Hospital on the same day. I was discharged with 5 days MC and medications.

I have a video footage of the accident. That's all.
