Without Prejudice

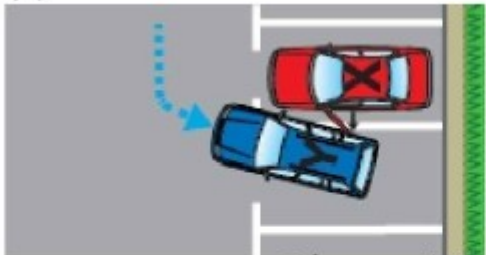

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

We refer to the above matter.

We have reviewed the matter and we are of the view that both parties should exercise caution for this matter. Your client was adjusting his parking position after stopped for 1-2seconds while our insured driver opened the door. Thus collision happened. The damages to our insured door was being pulled outward which is likely that our door was opened while your client was moving ahead.

We propose 50/50 towards your client' s claim as per MAG S30(b).

Please confirm acceptance and arrange for survey. Thanks.

(b)  Diagram 1.84 Where the door is opened just as Vehicle Y is moving into/out of adjacent parking lot and the opening door collides into Vehicle Y	Reason(s): DriverYshould keep a proper lookout for stationary vehicles in adjacent parking lots and maintain a margin of safety. Driver X/passenger should keep a proper lookout and not open the door so wide as to obstruct/cause danger to adjacent vehicles.	50	50

Our insured vehicle' s door damages

“Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement.”
