Dear Kenny,

Apologised for late response.

We have reviewed the matter and our comments are as follows: -

- Both parties do not possess CCTV footage to support their respective stand.
- Our driver reported that third party made a sudden lane change into his lane. He immediately braked and swerved slightly to the right which is not logical. The normal reaction is to swerve to left to avoid third party vehicle instead of right. The position of his lorry slanting across the road suggesting that he has intended to make a lane change towards right.
- Our insured lorry sustains a big dent on the front right door which indicates that it has been hit by impact force.
- Immediately after the impact, third party has perhaps swerved back to her lane and moved forward, adjusted her position within her lane.
- The statement of our driver alleged that third party male driver handed him with a lady driver driving licence in the exchange of particular does not mean that there is any foul play on third party. It is possible that the lady driver might not want to drive anymore after accident and let the man to take over driving which is quite normal. Unless photos taken can show that male driver coming out from the driver side immediately after the impact.
- The scene photos taken are not sufficient to prove who is the culprit of the collision.

In view of conflicting version, we propose 50/50 and would like to seek your approval to offer repairer "ESTEEM PERFORMANCE PTE LTD" at $2,280.45(all-in).

The summary is as follows: -

	Amount Claimed	Amount Revised
1. Cost of Repair (w/GST)	$ 9,243.62		$ 4,066.00
2. Loss of Use (11days x $120.00)	$ 1,320.00		$ 480.00 (8days x $60.00)
			$ 4,546.00
		@ 50%	$ 2,273.00
3. LTA Search Fee	$ 7.45		$ 7.45
Total	$ 10,571.07		$ 2,280.45

Surveyor recommended 5 days for repair + 1Sunday + 2PRS = 8days.

Enclosed here with all the relevant documents for your perusal.

Kindly let us have your approval / instruction.

Dear Hsiao Tong/ Su Li

Thank you for the advice.

Having reviewed both drivers' reports, we noticed that there are contradicting versions to the accident.

Our insured driver reported that tp cut into his lane and caused the collision. And as a result of the collision, he braked and his vehicle swerved to the right. Whereas, tp driver reported he was travelling straight when his vehicle was hit on the front left by our insured vehicle. Our insured driver also advised that the tp driver was a male but when they exchanged particulars, he handed over a lady's DL instead. They have provided some photos as evidence (see attachment).

In view of the above circumstances, chances of direct settlement seems remote as our insured is also claiming third party as well.

As such, we appreciate if you can let us have your advice by basing on the damages found on both vehicles, which party's version of the accident is the most probable.

Await your views soon.

Thank you.

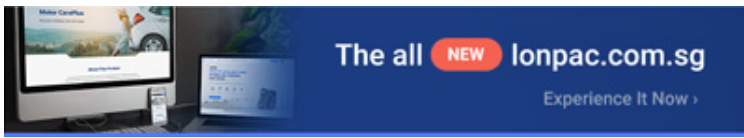

Best Regards
