Without Prejudice

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

We refer to the above matter.

We have reviewed the matter and based on your client's video, it shows that your client had gave way to our insured lorry and collided into the rear of our lorry after it stopped. We are of the view that our driver is not liable for the accident as your client should take evasive action to avoid a collision.

In view of this, we regret to inform you that we have our principal instruction to deny liability and unable to look into your client's claim.

Thank you.

“Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement.”

Note: We are on work from home arrangement. All correspondence should be made via email. Submission of claim related documents will be in softcopy. Any inconvenience caused is much regretted.

Best Regards,

Hsiao Tong, Chew | Case Handler
