Brief Details.

On 4th May 2021, I was riding my motorcycle(FBE4305U) along Raffles Boulevard towards Temasek Av at about 1700hrs. I was travelling on lane 5, extreme left of the road whereas the road sign indicates "go straight or turn left".

As I was about 10meters away from the Millenia Carpark Entrance, a car(SDW800P) was driving on lane 4, which can only go straight (as per the sign on the floor of the road), abruptly swerved to lane 5, immediately after signaling left without checking for oncoming vehicle.

The left front door of the car hit the right side of the motorcycle as well as hitting my right foot. Upon the impact, I flew off the motorcycle and fall on the divider of the carpark entrance, landed on my left knee and lower back. The said driver who is a Male Chinese, alighted and check on me and we exchanged our name and contact number.

The whole incident was witnessed by a car who was waiting to exit from the Millenia Carpark, who promptly called out and condemned the driver who hit me for dangerously swerving into my lane and hitting me. After scolding the driver that hit me, the witness then left the scene. I did not manage to get the contact of the said driver who witnessed the whole incident.

The driver that hit me and his passenger helped me lift up my motorcycle.
