Describe Circumstances of the Accident

At about 10 am, I (Heng Chin Chew), was driving along High Street with my wife and daughter along High Street towards the National Gallery. It was raining and I was not familiar with the direction to the National Gallery. My daughter was help to provide me with the direction. I was ~~not~~ distracted and did not notice the traffic lights. There was no car on the road beside me or in front of me.

The next moment I crossed the junction, a car collided into me. The other driver got out of the car and ~~said~~ asked why I drove out (which I understood to mean that he has the right of way and I somehow missed the red lights).

The driver of the car complaint of ringing sound in his ears which could be the results of the airbags inflating in his car from the collision. There was no other visible sign of injuries, and no one else was hurt.

There were some police officers around and I heard him the other driver telling them he did not carry his identity card or license with him when he was asked to produce them.

We declare the foregoing particulars are true in every respect.

Brief Details.

On 15/05/2021 at about 1000hrs, I was driving my car (registration plate: SLV9469P) along High Street towards the National Gallery. It was drizzling and I was distracted by trying to find my way to the location. Somehow, I missed the red lights. I crossed the red light on High Street junction of North Bridge Road and the next thing I know was, a car (registration plate: SLB4253H) had collided against the leftside of my car. Both cars were seriously damaged due to the collision. The said driver complained that his ears were ringing. He did not mention any other injury.

There were police officers nearby and they rendered assistance. I believed that one of the officers had called for ambulance. When the ambulance arrived, the paramedics assessed the said driver, and he was subsequently conveyed to Raffles Hospital for further treatment. Traffic police was also at scene. The Traffic Police officer interviewed me and I was advised to lodge an accident report. The officer had also seized my SD card of my car for further investigation. My passengers (wife and daughter) and I were not injured.
