CIRCUMSTANCES OF ACCIDENT

R2000007475 Circumstances Of Accident As i was on a straight lane going towards city hall and passing raffles city shopping centre on my right i signal right and kept to the centre lane and the traffic light was green and i continue to approach forward and suddenly the silvercab taxi SHC6995D jam brake infront me causing me to jam break too which made me hit the taxi from behind. The taxi infront of me stopped suddenly in the yellow box junction causing me to hit his car from behind when he could have actually continued to go straight. My car actually kissed the taxi rear bumper please refer to picture one for reference. We then move to the side road on the left jus before the bus lane to see whether there was any major damages to both car. But turns out both vehicle didn't have any major scratches dents or external damages but my number plat became loose. Nobody was injured and the passenger in the taxi also decided to leave the car. I also checked if the passenger who was a foreigner whether he had any kind of injuries but he was perfectly fine and decided to leave the scene and didn't got involve in the discussion between me and taxi driver. The taxi driver during that time was TAY CHIN KOON

IC: S7306870C. Apparently his was the relief driver of the taxi which he was driving.
