

Hi Car Owner

Last week, I came to the market to pack lunch and I accidentally bump into the front tyre side of your car. I waited for you to come back to your car but after waiting awhile, I did not manage to see you. I did not have any paper with me at that time to leave you a note on the incident and my contact details. Today I went to market and I saw your car, hence I would like to inform you and can you contact me at 94246158 so that we can work out to resolve it?

Regards
Peter
