07 June 2021

Dear Person In Charge,

I am goods transfer class 4 driver, Hee Whye Yu, Marx. I am writing to report the fire incident of truck YM9835J that happened last night.

I arrived work on 06 June 2021 at 8.30pm. I was allocated to drive truck YM9835J from Penjuru warehouse to Changi South Lane warehouse. I started driving off around 8.55pm

I took my usual route via Clementi Ave 6. Halfway through, along exiting PIE, suddenly there was audible alarm to warn that the truck is overheated. I stopped by the road shoulder along PIE to check. After checking, I decided to drive off PIE and stopped at Bukit Timah road (towards Singapore NgeeAnn Poly) and consulted my supervisor for advice through whatsapp groupchat.

One of colleague came down with 6 bottles of water with intention to top up the coolant. However, the coolant was filled with water when we opened up. Therefore, we concluded that it is not the coolant overheating issue and seek advice via whatsapp groupchat again.

Another senior colleague arrived to assist. After the truck has cooled down (1 hour plus later), we attempt to drive the truck again but there was weird noises coming from the front engine and decided to stop. That was when my supervisor advised me to call for tow service, from the decal on the wind screen of YM9835J - Cosmopolitan Engrg. Services Pte Ltd, 98310566.

Tow driver arrived at 11.51pm. I stood-by by the side and let him do the necessary. After securing the chain to truck YM9835J. I went back to release the handbrake as advised by the tow driver and ready to move off. At around 12.20am (07 Jun 2021), the tow driver suddenly pulled over by the road shoulder after noticing smoke coming from the back of truck YM9835J. Tow driver then mentioned that he should have known this truck is operated by air-pressure (我忘记注意这辆车是走风的). Both of us then rushed down to check what is happening. This happened at PIE towards Changi (near Bedok North Flyover). I called 995 immediately.

The tow driver rushed to his tow truck to take a bottle water after seeing flame on the left rear inner wheel. Upon seeing him trying to put out the flame with water, I also took 6 bottles of water that was previously brought to me by my colleague. The flame persisted. Tow driver then went back to his truck to carry out a big bucket of water but could not put out flame burning around the rear inner wheel. At that point, the metal around the rear wheel was already red burning. While tow driver continue putting out the fire, he asked me to flag down any vehicle that may have fire extinguisher as his truck does not have one.

I managed to stop a SBS bus, the bus captain quickly handover to me the fire extinguisher. I then handed over to the tow driver while I tried to flag down another vehicle for more fire extinguisher. This time, the police car arrived. There was no time to explain much and quickly took another extinguisher from the police car boot. Once I managed to put out a bit of fire around the wheel, I realized the fire had spread underneath the truck and the flame has gotten out of control.

To save time, I opened the tail gate and sliding doors (hoping to create easy access for fire fighter to put out the fire). The fire fighter arrived soon after, told me to stand at the safe side as they took over situation. I was taken away by the ambulance thereafter.

Brief Details.

On 06/06/2021 at about 2055hrs, I started to drive my company's truck bearing YM9835J from J&T Express to deliver goods to different warehouse. I wish to state that before driving off, I made a check on the vehicle, however nothing incriminating was found.

At about 2120hrs, while I was driving along PIE towards Ngee Ann Poly, there was an audible alarm to warn the truck was overheating. As such, I stopped along the road shoulder along PIE to make a check however nothing incriminating was found. After checking, I decided to drive off PIE and stopped at Bukit Timah Road towards Ngee Ann Poly and consulted my supervisor for advice.

Another senior colleague came down to assist. After the truck has cooled down about an hour, I attempted to drive the truck again however, there was a weird noises coming from the front engine and I decided to stop. I was advised by my supervisor to contact the tow truck service which later he came down to assist to tow it back to Changi South Lane Warehouse.

On 07/06/2021 at about 0020hrs, while the tow truck driver driving along PIE towards Changi near Bedok North Flyover, he suddenly pulled over to the road shoulder as the driver noticed smoke coming from the back of the truck. I then saw the flame coming from the left rear inner tire. Before alighting, the tow truck driver mentioned that he should have known the truck is operated by air-pressure. We both alighted and I called 995 immediately after seeing the flame.

Both the tow truck driver and myself tried to pull out the flame with water however we were unable to stop the flame. I then tried to flag down any vehicle and managed to stop a SBS bus and he handed over to me the fire extinguisher. I then handover over it to the tow truck driver for him to stop the flame. I realized that I needed more fire extinguisher. As such, I flagged for more vehicle to ask for assistance. The police and the fire fighter then arrived at the location.

I was conveyed to Singapore General Hospital by ambulance as I was having breathing difficulties.

I am lodging this report for insurance claim.
