Brief Details.

I made a U-turn into the the other side of the carriageway and there was a truck Xe1415u that was in front of me. After we drove a little bit more, the truck suddenly stopped. Upon seeing the truck stopping, I also stopped behind. Since the left lane of the carriageway had another truck parked, I could only use the right side of the lane to overtake the truck in front of me. As I did my safety checks and was preparing to move off, my motorbike stalled and the truck started to reverse. As the truck was reversing, I horned at the truck while using my legs to reverse to the right. My right thumb was also trying to restart the motorbike. Everything was done simultaneously, However, the truck still did not stop and it eventually knocked into me. Causing me to fall and got injured.
