Brief Details.

On 19/7/21 at about 1240hrs, I exited my head office at 32 Joo Koon Road in my car SLE9057J, a blue Subaru Impreza, and drove along Joo Koon Road towards Joo Koon Circle. This was a 2 lane, one-way road, however the right lane had vehicles stopped along the road, thus I travelled on the left lane. While I was passing by 9 Joo Koon Road, a car suddenly cut into my lane from 9 Joo Koon Road and collided head first into the front right bumper area of my car, causing my car to be pushed to the left. Due to the collision, my car mounted the left kerb and hit a parked bicycle. The car continued for a few metres more and collided head first into a tree. The airbags of my car deployed when the car collided into the tree. After I managed to exit the vehicle, a witness named Martin approached me and told me that he witnessed the accident. He provided me his contact number however as my phone currently has no battery, I cannot recall the number.

I called the for the police after exiting the vehicle and spoke to the other driver, who stopped her vehicle slightly ahead. We exchanged particulars however as the details are in my phone which had run out of battery, I am unable to provide it at this time. Traffic Police and an ambulance came, however we both did not need to be conveyed at this time. We handed over our in-car camera SD cards to the traffic police at scene and were given a case card. We were then asked to lodge a police report regarding the accident reference J/20210719/0078, under TP IO Roizman Tel: 65476131. I later activated towing services for my car and left the location with my colleague who came to pick me up. I proceeded to the Toa Payoh Subaru service centre to deal with my damaged car.

Later at about 3 or 4pm, I started feeling discomfort due to the accident, thus I proceeded to KTPH to see a doctor. I was given 7 days of MC and was found to have suffered cuts on my hands, right forearm, right shin area. I also felt some discomfort on my chest area and aches on my back.

This is the first time such an incident happened to me. I have never met the driver of the other car before and I do not personally know her. No other government property was damaged to my knowledge. No foreign vehicle was involved. To my knowledge, the other driver also did not suffer any injuries at the time of the accident.
