DESCRIBE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ACCIDENT

I was turning right from China Street towards Church Street. When turning, my car was very close to the other vehicle and I and the other vehicle managed to stop in time. There was no swipe and no collision. I apologised to the other vehicle driver for driving too close to his vehicle.

As there was no collision nor swipe, I left it as that and I see no need to submit any claims for own or third party damages. There were two colleagues in my car and they can verify that both vehicles stopped in time and there was no damage to either vehicle.
