Dear Jeremy,

We refer to the above matter.

Please be informed that third party disagreed on our rejection and submitted scene photos for our review. No video submitted by third party.

We have checked with OI Mr Ng on his counter claim against third party and he informed us that third party insurer refused to settle his claim. We have tried to advise OI that based on scene photos, it is likely that both parties were close to each other and collision happened. Suggested to resolve at 50/50. However OI insisted that third party driver keep moving to the right and grazed onto his right rear portion while he was turning. After the accident, Third party shifted his van back to the lane to open his door. Insured also mentioned that third party driver was not paying attention on the road condition as he was looking on phone. OI feels that it is not fair to him to settle at 50/50. He hope AIG can fight for him.

In view of our insured dispute liability, we seek your instruction to maintain rejection.

FYI, third party has yet arrange for survey till date.

Hi Hsiao Tong,

You can proceed as per recommended.

However, before sending the rejection, please check with insured on his counter claim status.

Our system indicated that insured is at fault under BOLA 16.

If TPWS is not disputing our rejection based on either BOLA 9 (c) or 10(a), let us know, so we can seek recovery against their insurer.

Regards

Hi Jeremy,

We refer to the above matter.

Please be informed that our insured is disputing on third party claim. We have spoken to Mr Ng, he said that he was making a right turn and he had turned in, third party did not slow down and swerved right then hit onto his car. Our insured has submitted scene photos(uploaded in Merimen) for our review. According to insured, he has stopped his car after the collision. Third party shifted his van back to the lane to open his door. Insured also mentioned that third party driver was not paying attention on the road condition as he was looking on phone.

Based on both parties' report, we are of the view that BOLA S9(c) / S10(a) is applicable.

In view of insured strongly dispute on liability, kindly advise if we may proceed to reject third party claim at this juncture.

Thank you.
