CIRCUMSTANCES OF ACCIDENT

At 12.43pm on 20 August 2021 I was waiting at the traffic lights which were in red of the CTE Exit towards Braddell Road. When it turned green the ambulance in front of me SKJ 7434C driven by Mohammad Zainudin Bin Ideris S7402334G started driving off and I started moving forward. When SKJ 7434C suddenly braked I tried to jam brake as fast as I could. However the road was wet so was unable to brake in time. My vehicle very gently nudged the ambulance in front. I exited my vehicle to inspect and a nurse called Liping who travelled with the driver examined the vehicle and took pictures of the accident. The driver stood at the side and was not involved in the examination. A few minutes later a man driving a BMW stopped behind my vehicle and alighted to chat with the ambulance driver. I could not understand the conversation as they conversed in Malay. After examining and inspecting the ambulance for about 5 mins Liping and I agreed that there was no visible damage to SKJ7434C. The pictures I attach also show that there was no visible damage at all to SKJ7434C.
