Dear Lee,

We have customer unsatisfied with this Direct Settlement claim based on the LKK surveyor report.

Based on the surveyor report, those internal damage is not consistent by this accident so some of the parts he did not agree to approved.

But based on customer point of view he cannot accept and he want valid justification why it's not consistent to the accident.

Even though impact is not much, but such a big vehicle can cause internal damage even its small bump. I have attached the surveyor mark estimate for your references.

I would like to get resurvey on this car, and approved those damage item below to get replace and extend the rental days as well for my client.

- 1) Both headlamps
- 2) Front grille Assy
- 3) Headlight bracket
- 4) Extend rental days

Thank you

Best Regards

Without Prejudice

Dear Sirs

We refer to your email dated 31 August 2021.

We would advise that we have no dispute on liability and are agreeable to have direct settlement with you in respect to your client's claim.

Please send us all relevant supporting documents once your client's vehicle has been repaired. The costs of repairs and duration for repair works will be based strictly on the surveyors' recommendations.

We will write to you again upon receiving your claims documents.

Please do not construe this appointment of surveyor and our above request as an admission of liability.
