Hi Li Li,

We refer to the email below.

Based on the video footage insured travel in front of third party make a lane switch to the left, in which switch on his signal to make a right turn and collided into third party vehicle.

Based on the damaged to the insured side and third party front fender we are of the opinion that BOLA 15 shall be applied to the case.

Vehicle that is make a turn should position his vehicle in the correct lane to do so.

Insured is traveling in between 2 lane before the accident, he move towards the left however signalling right.

In view on the above we are of the opinion that insured is more liable to the claim.

Kindly advise we can settle the matter up to 80%.

Dear Asher

Please offer only 50% & loss of rental/income up to 2 days only (i.e. $1740.92).

TP driver should also exercise caution and proper lookout in avoiding this accident since TP was travelling behind our Insured vehicle.

Our Insured was still in his lane and had signalled right. By right, this should be under BOLA S27.
