Product description Roeckl Imuro Gloves

The IMURO is a modern all-rounder with a high-quality set of features and sporty look. ROECKL has combined airy, light Miro Mesh with Lycra and 2-way Spandex on the back of the hand. The palm is made from DURADERO, a hard-wearing, comfortable synthetic suede material. Thanks to the tried and tested comfort features COMFORT-INNOVATION und ERGONOMIC CUT gel padding, it dampens pressure and vibrations and prevents excessive strain. The elaborate siliconized area ensures a superior grip on the handlebar for precision steering. The glove's high-quality range of features is topped off by the exclusive PULL-OFF SYSTEM, REFLECT print and a large microfleece insert on the thumb.

Specifications:

- Backhand: Micro mesh, Lycra full dull, 2-way Spandex
- Palmhand: DURADERO
- Attributes: COMFORT-INNOVATION, ERGONOMIC CUT, GEL-TECHNOLOGY, SILICONE-GRIP, REFLECT print & details, soft-wipe thumb, PULL OFF SYSTEM

by Roeckl.

PULL OFF SYSTEM:

- Exclusive pull off system from Roeckl to easily remove the short finger gloves from your hands.

GEL-TECHNOLOGY:

- Extremely shock- and vibration-absorbing silicone gel.

SILICONE-GRIP:

- Maximum grip (in dry conditions) thanks to the silicone coating.

Refelctive design elements:

- Product with reflective design elements

ERGONOMIC CUT:

- An especially anatomical palm design. Offers very effective protection of the palm nerves. Ergonomically valuable.

Roeckl gloves

Dimitra - 03/01/2019 Automatic translation

The gloves are great. Adhere well to the handle and are very pleasantly padded. It is not a problem.
