Brief Details.

On 17/11/2021 at about 1325hrs, I was driving my vehicle SFH6018Y along St. Patrick Road and was driving straight towards Martia Road. There was a hump just before the cross junction of St. Patrick Road and Martia Road, so I slowed down my vehicle. There was no stop line at my direction, so I proceed to drive through the cross junction; thereafter I felt a strong impact coming from my vehicle's right side. The driver side portion of my vehicle collided with another vehicle SHF488A front left portion which came from Martia Road. My vehicle's airbag was deployed. After the incident, I came out from my vehicle and we exchanged out particulars.

I noticed that there is a stop line at the said cross junction along Martia Road, which indicated that the said taxi is supposed to stop before the stop line before proceeding, but the said taxi did not stop at all. Ambulance and Traffic Police was also at scene. I was conveyed to Raffles Hospital before Traffic Police officer's arrival and I was given 7 days of outpatient sick leave. I sustained fracture on my right thumb, abrasion on my left wrist, swell on my forehead and felt stiff on my neck region. There are no vehicle cameras installed on my vehicle. I have a witness for this incident as stated within the Police report.
