Without Prejudice

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

Please be informed that we do not agreed on your rejection.

Our MID truck 5 tonner which is a heavy vehicle is supposed to travel on extreme left lane of 3 lanes on TPE. Based on you driver's statement, MID vehicle suddenly cut into his lane, collided and causing damage to his left side mirror. Your driver did not mention which lane MID truck traveling along probably from left most lane. However, no MID vehicle would cut lane from left most lane to centre lane unless attempting to make a right turn which is not possible as there is still a long way before MID move to PIE heading towards destination Bedok Camp.

If our driver try to cut to right and hit your client lorry, the position of MID truck side mirror should have been facing inward, your client lorry's left side mirror should turn toward front. However, the position of 2 vehicles side mirror seems to be in another way round. Our MID truck mirror cracked and turning towards front is a result of impact force from your client truck during its course of overtaking MID from behind. The damage profile supports our driver's accident statement.

We are of the view that our driver statement is more credible.

Please review and let us have your offer.

Thank you.
