Brief details.

I was driving my car (SMK5358Z - Honda Shuttle Dark Blue, Driver Name Gregory Seah S8527255A) along the CTE-AYE travelling towards the Braddell Road exit. My wife and my 11 month old infant daughter were at the back seats (infant in her baby seat both strapped).

After filtering to the extreme left lane, a Volvo (SFE12T - Black, Driver Name Tan Yong Hui NRIC S1486157B) abruptly tried to cut into my lane. I applied the horn to remind him that there was danger by cutting like that as my vehicle was at his 8 o'clock. I also applied my brakes to let it him into the lane and kept a distance.

He winded down his window and raised his hand twice. Initially I thought it was the middle finger but subsequently realised he was signaling me to pull over by the road island to the left. I thought perhaps there was some contact between our cars and he wanted to report it.

It was not safe for me to immediately move to the island - I drove further up, signalled left and moved onto the island coming to a gradual full stop a distance away from his car. I looked into my rear view mirror where I saw that he was accelerating and subsequently rear ended my car.

I checked whether my wife and daughter were ok and then checked to see from rear view that he had come out of the car looking hostile. I have to say I was fearful that he might attack the rear car window/hurt my daughter.

I went on to check on my wife and daughter if they were ok before stepping out of the vehicle. He mentioned he was unhappy that I had not given him way. I was taken aback as I had applied the breaks to give him way and had only gave a horn to alert him of the dangers.

I called 999 at about 1.46pm and reported the incident. Coincidentally, a TP officer was riding on the CTE as well and I gestured for him to alert him to this incident. The TP's mobile contact is 9002 5184. I related the incident to him. I then went back to check on my wife and child while the TP officer was talking to the other driver. The TP then came to check on my family and I - I asked the other driver to stay away as he also came to have a look. The driver seeing my daughter then went on his knees to apologise in front of the TP officer who asked him to get up and that such actions were inappropriate. My family and I then waited for the ambulance to be conveyed to the hospital and my car was towed to the police compound. I would also like to report that this driver smoked despite my daughter nearby and threw 2 cigarette butts into the bushes (this is witnessed by the TP).
