Brief Details.

On the 15/12/2021 at about 10.55pm, I was riding my motorcycle riding along Tampines St 23. As I was near B/216 Tampines St 23, suddenly there was this silver color car from the opposite direction came turning right into the carpark. I was very near to the car when it turned in front of me, I jammed brake but I was unable to stop in time and had hit on to the car's left side front portion. I then fell on my left side with my motorcycle. The driver of the silver car had drove off into the estate carpark.

The ambulance and Traffic Police had came down. There was also a witness who helped me went into the carpark to locate the silver car. We managed to locate the silver car and the driver was a female who informed that she does not know that there was an accident that happened. Her car had a big dent on the left side, just above the left front tyre. We had exchanged particulars. My motorcycle was totally damaged and could not be ridden.

I had went to CGH and was given 14 days MC.
