Dear Mr. Alfred,

As per your conversation with Andy this morning, below are our opinions on the accident.

The vehicle was driven by my staff Tan Ming Jie and was involved in an accident.

We were not CC a copy of the other parties claim/LOD and hence have no idea of the claim until recently when we were trying to do a renewal of the policy to find out that it has risen so much.

As we mentioned, our vehicle has not suffered a damaged and the slight brush due to the collision of the two vehicles were so minor, we managed to clean off the affected part. I am not aware that there is any repair works done to our vehicle but there was a replacement car given to us for temporary use "while our vehicle is being repaired." I would urge China Taiping to investigate to check of there us any scams to the claims as i am not sure if my staff has gotten any benefits from the workshop for allowing them to repair my company's vehicle.

In the file "illustration of investigation", we have done measurements to the damaged part of the other party vehicle and suspect that the vehicle was damaged was there before the accident with our vehicle as the height for the damaged part on their vehicle dont seem to be reachable for the bumper of my van. Also looking at the height on brush on my bumper, there is also no possibility on the wheels damaged on the other party vehicle. I suspect all these were not part of the damaged of this particular accident.

My staff was not injured and i wasn't told of any injury reported by hi,. Please help to check if there is any claims on my driver Tan Ming Jie Medical claims?

We were told the vehicle was sent for "inspection" for the case, we were not aware it was given to workshop for any restoration works because nothing was repaired on our vehicle. We have since made a police report on the claims which we felt shouldn't be imposed on our insurer and seek your company to do a thorough investigation on it.

Lastly as our policy has lapsed and we are unable to renew the road tax, we would like to ask if we can renew it now as per your quotation and in any case at the end of this claim closure, found that there was no claim made under this accident, can China Taiping make adjustment to the policy premium and refund the excess premium paid? Can you also please seek a discount for the renewal for my immediate renewal now?

Best Regards,

Jessica Ler
