Brief details.

I was driving on the first lane on the expressway and suddenly the car in front of me started breaking hard with its hazed lights on. I followed suit and stopped with my hazed light on to alert anyone is following me. Then subsequently I heard the sound of the impact. I look through my rear mirror and saw the biker hit my car boot and fall to the side. I went down and checked on him and his condition. And it appears that he had no visible injury other than him moving his left wrist.

My car boot was slightly damaged and the front cover of his motorbike was damaged too.

We exchanged contacts, driving license, took photo of the incident, car and motor bike and split ways.

We agreed to claim on the motor bike rider's insurance because he agreed that it was his fully
