Dear Huey Yon and surveyors,

There are a number of cases surveyed some time ago which we have yet to finalise. For your convenience, we have collated a list of aging cases which are surveyed by your team in the form of a table below, and we hope to finalise these cases with you as soon as possible. If there are any issues with the cases, please send us a follow-up email as to why and how long it has to be placed on hold.

We also understand that there are cases which we have to revert as well, so while we work on the cases which are pending our response, we would greatly appreciate your help to finalise the old cases listed in the table.

This email serves as a single reminder on behalf of all the cases, please respond to the respective email chains unique to every case for better traceability.

Thank you for your assistance!
