Brief Details.

On 24/12/2021 at about 5pm I was driving back home from work. While I was along AYE towards MCE at about 6pm, a car knocked my motorcycle from behind. As a result I fell off my bike. Due to the fall, I got giddy. However, I got back up and ran to the side of the road to ensure my safety. Another Malaysian motorcyclist then helped me to push my bike to the side of the road. The driver that knocked onto me also parked his vehicle by the side of the road. When he got off, he made a check on me and helped to call for ambulance and police.

While waiting for police and ambulance, we exchanged particulars. Upon ambulance and police arrival, paramedics made a check. They informed my vitals were okay and did not require immediate conveyance. They then advised me to go to a Doctor if I was feeling any pain or discomfort afterwards. Subsequently, I rode my bike off to Ng Teng Fong Hospital.

After consultation, I was issued a 15 days MC. I suffered a abrasion on my left elbow.

My motorcycle had minor scratches as a result of the accident.
