Without Prejudice

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

We refer to your below email.

We have appealed your matter to our principal for further reviewed. However we regret to inform you that we have our principal instruction to maintain rejection.

Thank you.

“Kindly note that this negotiation between parties on this matter is purely on a without prejudice basis with the sole intention of resolving the matter amicably without parties resorting to legal proceedings. No admission of liability, whatsoever, should be deemed / inferred from this negotiation of terms/settlement.

In the event of new evidence being discovered or subsequently produced by either party that will materially affect/influence on the issues of liability/damages, either party is not bound, thereafter, by the negotiation terms/settlement.”

Dear Sirs/Mdm,

Attached is a copy of our insured accident report and video for your easy reference. It shows that your client changed lane and collided with our insured vehicle.

In view of the above, we regret to inform you that we have our principal instruction to deny liability and unable to look into your client's matter.

Thank you.
