Brief Details

I left the car park of Minton condo at Hougang Street 11 and turned right into Lorong Ah Soo. I waited at the traffic junction of Lorong Ah Soo and Upper Paya Lebar Rd. When the light turned green, I turned right onto the left most lane of Upper Paya Lebar Rd to get ready to filter left into Upper Serangoon Rd towards city. I was travelling at about 50km/h. I am very familiar with this part of the road. Soon after I turned into the left most lane of Upper Paya Lebar Rd, I saw a motorcycle ridden by a Grab food delivery rider in front of me. The motorcycle was moving at normal speed, nothing unusual. I was about 2 to 3 car lengths behind. Suddenly and without signal or warning, the motorcycle slowed down very substantially and very quickly. I could see the rider looking down (judging from the clear tilting downwards of the helmet), probably looking at the display of his mobile device. I immediately applied the brake to slow down and tried to maintain the distance from the motorbike. I anticipated the motorbike to continue moving forward but at a lower speed. But almost at the same time, the motorbike stopped completely in the middle of the left most lane without signal or any warning. I applied the brake harder but couldn't avoid hitting the rear of the motorbike. At the point of impact, I should be travelling at about 25km. The air bags of my Audi were not deployed, due to the low speed of the collision. I could see the rider jumped off the bike as he lost balance after the impact. He was not thrown off the bike nor was he trapped below the bike. I immediately called 999 and asked the officer to send an ambulance as well. The rider sat on the road till the ambulance arrived. After examining the rider, the ambulance crew told me he only has some bruises. A traffic police officer arrived soon after. He took down my particulars and advised me to lodge a traffic accident report online. Unfortunately, my car is not fitted with a camera. I could only provide a few photos as evidence. I asked the rider why he completely stopped in the middle of the road. But he denied he stopped. I felt he was not truthful.
