Brief Details.

On 30/10/2019 at about 2235hrs, I was driving an SAF ambulance bearing plate number MID46210. I was travelling along Yishun Central towards the direction of Yishun Avenue 5. At the cross junction of Yishun Central and Yishun Avenue 2, my ambulance was stationary on the left of two lanes, as the traffic light was red. There was an unknown car on the right lane, beside my ambulance. There was a black motorcycle which lane split in between my ambulance and the car. Suddenly, I heard a loud bang on the right of the ambulance and I believed the handlebar had grazed onto the ambulance.

The motorcycle rider continued straight, but I managed to catch up at the junction near Chong Pang CC. I took down the motorcycle plate number as FBD3904D. I then drove the ambulance back to Nee Soon Camp and reported the matter to my superior. The ambulance suffered some scratches and slight dent on the right bottom portion of the ambulance cabin. No one was injured during the incident. There are cameras installed on the ambulance. It captured the motorcycle rider wobbled upon side swiping with the ambulance. However, the plate number was unclear.
