Brief details.

On 19 March at 5pm, I did not notice any abnormalities as I drove the car from MSCP 424A to Woodlands Mart. On the way to Woodlands Mart, at the junction before Admiralty MRT, I heard a loud screech sound. I searched for the source of the sound and I thought it was from the umbrella scratching on the surface of the door, on the passenger's seat. There were also no vehicles around me at that moment. I also did not inspect the exterior of the car afterwards. On 20 March, my father saw that the front part had a huge gap. It was not a usual scratch but it could be caused by someone who might have hit it.

As the car's dashboard camera is not switched on when the engine is off, I am unable to provide any video evidence.
