CIRCUMSTANCES OF ACCIDENT

I was travelling along Seng Poh Road towards Eng Hoon Street, after passing the car park entrance of Tiong Bahru Food Centre, there were cars stopping along the left hand side of the roads. I was driving slowly as there was car in front intended to pull along the left hand side, at the same time there were pedestrians waiting at both sides, to cross the roads. Sudden I heard a loud bang on the left side of my car, I noticed the left side view mirror was severely damaged, and from the rear mirror I saw a parked white van with door opened, a man was coming out from the van. As there were cars in behind and pedestrians around the area, I did not immediately stop the car, but slowly pull over some where near the main entrance to the Tiong Bahru Food Centre. After I came down from the car and approached the van, the driver was trying to pick up the damaged pieces of my side mirror from the road, which he handled to me later. The driver admitted that he was at fault, as he opened the door without waiting my car to pass, as he thought could managed in time.
