Brief Details.

On 27/04/2022 at about 1500hrs, I was driving my bus service no. 3 (SBS 6547B) along Pasir Ris Dr 1, turning right towards Loyang Avenue. At that point of time, I was at the extreme left lane. Halfway through the turning, I heard the sound of brakes from behind and felt an impact from the back of my bus. I felt the bus shifted and I hit my head onto the right side of the window. There were about around 20 passengers at that point of time, and I checked on all of my passengers ensuring their safety. Subsequently, I noticed that it was a rubbish truck (XE 4092Y) that collided against my bus. The rubbish truck's front left bumper had bumped against the right rear of my bus. I immediately called the service controller and they assisted to call for ambulance and traffic police.

5 of them were injured due to the impact (3 of the injured ones were conveyed by the ambulance). I assisted the rest of the passengers who were not injured to board on the next bus. I also exchanged particulars with the driver of the rubbish truck. I wish to state that there was also another passenger in the truck.

What I discovered was the right body of the bus was dented, and the glass were completely shattered.

I wish to state that I went to OneCare Clinic Loyang and was issued 01 day of medical leave dated 27/04/2022 only. There was a motorcyclist (Sulaiman, 98894087) who informed that he witnessed the whole incident.

I have moved back to 20-06 Pangsapuri Seri Palma, Jalan Delima 3/1, Taman Delima, 81100 Johor Bahru.
