Dear Shiau Chan

Thanks for the update. We hope to revert to you soon.

Meanwhile, is there any updates on the NEA weather report?

Thank you.

Hi Bryan

Thanks for your views on the matter.

Would you be able to advise roughly as to how long would NEA take to revert?

Thank you.

Hi Rosli

I have written to NEA to apply for the specific weather report along and/or in the vicinity of the reported incident location. Understand that this will take some time for them to revert. Once we have it, we will let you know again.

Meanwhile, I have reviewed the photos taken by our surveyor and there were signs of oxidation at the electrical sockets located within the interior compartment of the Insured Vehicle, which may have been possibly caused by water contamination.

Best Regards,

Bryan Ang

Dear Shiau Chan

Kindly let us have photos taken for this survey.

Dear Bryan

We would like to have your views on this case.

1. We noticed that what was indicated in the repair estimate are all parts situated in the Engine Bay of the vehicle. No signs of water seepage damage to the interior on the vehicle.
2. We would also like to have your views on how the water could have got into these parts of the car noting the vehicle in an SUV and that there were no reports of flash floods during the date time of the accident.

Thank you.

Regards,

Faiz Rosli
