Hi Ming Yao,

Please be informed that third party had submitted a copy of video footage for our review. From third party video, we observe that third party move off from the stationary position while our insured filtered into third party lane.

We are of the view that both parties should exercise caution and would like to propose 50/50 for this matter.

Kindly let us have your comments(if any) and assist to reopen the case n Merimen for our necessary action.
