Your Insured vehicle no: SLA4828E.

Attn: Mr. Chong Boon Sen,
Motor Claim officer.

Dear Sir,

Re: Accident involving your insured vehicle no: SLA4828E and my vehicle no: EQ1101L, on 23-05-2022 at Jurong West St 64, Blk 676 MSCP Level 2A.

With reference to the above mentioned, kindly be informed that my vehicle no: EQ1101L was damaged by your insured vehicle driver's negligence and carelessness in driving to collide with my parked vehicle at the said MSCP location.

It was a hit-and-run accident involving your insured vehicle and driver, attached is my vehicle in-dash cam video DVD, Traffic police and GIA reports for your kind perusal.

This hit-and-run incident was discovered after my vehicle was repaired by my workshop because at that material time I do not know how to retrieve the video recording, it was after the repair my vehicle video cam accessories shop managed to retrieve and show the recording to me.

Therefore, kindly put in record that I am seeking a claim against your esteemed company as the insurer of the said vehicle and driver for my loss sustained in the above mentioned due to your insured driver fault.

I have computed the amount of the following claim against your esteemed company as the insurer of the said vehicle to settle the above-mentioned hit and run accident.

1) Repair tax invoice no: ES000596	$ 4,800.00
2) Loss of use for 2 days X $ 80.00 per day	160.00
3) LTA search fee	7.49
	Total: $ 4,967.49

Attached is the repair tax invoice, LTA search fee receipt and necessary reports for your kind perusal.

Please take notice that should you wish to settle this claim on behalf of your insured driver with me, you should send an acknowledgment within 14 days to me. If you fail to do so by then, I have no alternative but to commence a legal proceeding against your insured driver without further notice to you.

I look forward to your kind cooperation and an amicable settlement in the above-mentioned.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,
